

DYNTest Monitoring - Logger

The DYNTTEST-system is a system for monitoring particle filters and exhaust-gas back-pressure levels and temperature . Also to dose the Additive.

The DYNTTEST-system prevents engine damage or damage to filters and allows the control of active regeneration and alarm systems. All values preset as standard have been thoroughly tried and tested. The DYNTTEST-system is able to withstand rigorous everyday operating conditions and is designed for manufacturer-independent operation. The DYNTTEST-system is a versatile analytical tool for the evaluation of data gathered over extended periods. In addition, the system is attractively priced and flexibly upgradeable.

